The National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) Authors have authored in whole or in part the original and previously unpublished Work in the course of their official duties as employees of the National Institute of Standards and Technology.

1. Grant

Pursuant to Title 17 United States Code § 105, works of the United States Government are not subject to copyright protection within the United States. Pursuant to this Agreement, Publisher is hereby granted the unlimited right to print, publish, prepare derivative works and distribute the Work, or the NIST contribution to the Work, in any medium, or authorize others to do so on your behalf, on an unrestricted royalty-free basis throughout the World. To the extent the United States Government may claim foreign copyright, no assignment of rights is made.

2. Representations

The Authors represent that the Work and all figures, illustrations, tabular and other supplementary material is original, except for those that are included with the written permission of the copyright owners. I (we) further represent that the Work contains no libelous or unlawful statements and does not infringe or violate any copyright or trademark of others. If any non-NIST author(s) contributed to the Work, I (we) make no representations with respect to such non-NIST author(s).

3. Acknowledgments

Please provide appropriate acknowledgments of the NIST Authors of the Work. Publisher may use the name and professional credits of the NIST Authors on the Work or any derivative work. Publisher shall include the acknowledgment “Contribution of the National Institute of Standards and Technology,” or a similar acknowledgment on the Work. Publisher shall not use the name or logo of NIST in any way that implies an endorsement of any product or service of the Publisher.

4. Applicability

This Agreement governs NIST authored works or NIST authored contributions to works.

5. General

This Agreement shall be subject to the Federal laws of the United States. NIST Authors may not receive payments, royalties, or other types of compensation or remuneration, in connection with this work. Remuneration, royalties, gifts or discounts, if any, must be provided directly to the Supervisor, Accounts Receivable for NIST. Copies of the publication and/or reprints should be sent to the appropriate NIST Division.
